GOOD NEWS!

We had already purchased an immense stock of

HOLIDAY GOODS

when a message from the city was received announcing the failure of one of the largest importers in our line in the West. W. S. Tuttle left at once for Chicago to take advantage of the great sacrifices to be made at this forced sale, and all these will be piled into our store on top of what we have already purchased, and sold to you at just that we have usually been obliged to charge you. Our stock this year, in consequence of this rare chance, will be as far ahead of anything that we have ever before shown you as day is ahead of night.

GRAND BARGAINS

HALF THE PRICE

WATCH US

and as soon as Mr. Tuttle returns he will give you all the particulars.

Yours resp'y,
